Summary of the First Annual Dinner JCI Panama Senate.

On 21 October the first JCI Panama Senate Annual Dinner 2011 was celebrated. This great event was the perfect setting to honour the career and commitment of four senators: Alcibiades Madrid, Aurelio Garcia, Luis Pimentel and Ma Teresita Domingo.

The event was successfully held at the Hotel Holiday Inn, Clayton, City of Knowledge, with a 30 senators and 22 guests represented by family and special guests, giving a total of 52 people in this great event of the JCI Senate Panama.

The first annual dinner achieved several objectives, including:

1. Involve nationwide senators through interaction in the Annual gala dinner dance; Remember the history of the Senate and honour those who left their mark on the JCI Panama.
3. Presentation of the JCI Panama Senate website
4. Suggest possible dates for the JCI Senate Panama Day
5. Mark the beginning of commitment and stronger connection between the active JCI membership and the JCI Senate Panama.

The President of the Association of JCI Senators of the Americas and the Caribbean - ASAC, Jorge Humberto Restrepo Rojas sent his congratulatory message to the Senate of Panama, in celebration of our First Annual Dinner of the Senate. We also received messages from the JCI World President, Kentaro Harada and JCI Secretary General Edson Kodama A.

Senator Edgar Barsallo gave a speech thanking everyone and confirmed the commitment to the JCI Panama Senate once again to the hand of the elected President of the JCI Panama Senate 2012, Senator Iris Archibold, to work hard for the next Annual Dinner 2012, so that each year's annual dinner event will improve on the one before and to draw the participation of all senators. The Senator Edgar Barsallo received well deserved award recognition from his Senate Team 2011, Sen. Greta Jones (JCI Panama Senate Newsletter Editor) and Sen. Iris Archibold (Coordinator of the National Directory Senate of Panama). Well done Sen. Edgar!
